Subject: filling out interview dates on notice of allowance forms

Hi kids. Some people have gotten their allowances bounced back if they have a separate interview summary, and if the date of the interview summary doesn't match what they put as the "mail date" on Item 6 of the "Attachments" section of the Notice of Allowance. Please make a habit of filling in the actual interview date when you're doing the Notice of Allowance--it will save you time and aggravation.

better yet, don't bother with an interview summary if it's only to approve an examiner's amendment--just use form paragraph 13-02-01 on your examiner's amendment itself.

David
